

The AALC Students' Union is an elected body that represents the student community, working to ensure their voices are heard and their interests are addressed. As a key platform for student governance, the Union organizes events, promotes student welfare, and liaises with the college administration to address academic, social, and extracurricular concerns. It also fosters leadership and teamwork among students, providing them with opportunities to engage in decision-making processes that affect campus life. Committed to building a vibrant and inclusive environment, the Students' Union plays a central role in enhancing the overall college experience.
